952 CULL EWES & 26 RAMS

Nearly 1000 cull ewes forward and in general a good show of sheep, if anything several over fat ewes on offer and these, like the heavy hoggs meeting a bit more resistance. Medium and lean ewes still keenly sought after though and those smaller, lean meated ewes in the £120's and £130's and sometimes £140's looking the trade of the day. Several best end ewes forward but many of which are handling too thick with Rich Berry of Kenn topping the trade with a single Texel ewe at £315, the Neale family of Launceston with a pair at £292, Lyle Burrough of Cotleigh at £288, Rebecca Jordan of Chagford with a pen of 6 Texel's at £287 and Halwell Famrs of South Pool with their best at £268. Shapely Beltex from Paul & Lin Calcraft to £264 as Matt & Vicky Smith and Jess Maynard of Thelbridge had Blue Texel's at £260 and Tom Nancekivell up from Bude led the way with the Charollais selling large pens at £240 & £218 followed closely by Rob Hopper and family with more of the same at £238. Best of the pure Suffolks to £218 and £207 for Andy & Wendy Reed of Blackborough as Geoff & Nicky Arscott of Chagford sold theirs at £209 and Bernard Strout and family of Launceston claimed £195. Suffolk cross Mules trading early £180's for the best with plenty in the £160's and £170's whilst Mule ewes were more of a struggle and often £135 to £139 for the best and more common sorts £125 to £135. Hill ewes again similar on the week with the best nicely over £100 and lighter and leaner sorts £70 to £90. Some shelly Mule and crossbred ewes including the first of the seasons lambing disasters coming out of the shed and often £70 to £90 with hardly a sheep sold less than £65 to average a respectable £139.37. Tups generally ok with Mark Harvey of Slapton seeing the highlight of his days trading when his pen of four old faithful boys made £216, Anthony Tucker of Kings Nympton with Dorset's at £196, Matt & Vicky Smith and Jess Maynard at £192 and Richard Toop and family of Yelverton made £190.
