Older Ewes to £240
Rams to 1850gns

1670 EWE LAMBS

Another increase in numbers on the year and a noticeable lift in quality too with all breeds of ewe lambs well received and just about in line with prices achieved at longer standing sales on a national scale. Dorset's topped the section with a stand out pen from Michael Ware and Family of Silvertown rising to £255 as Steve & Michelle Warring of Ashwater sold theirs at £225 & £205. A large and impressive line up of 920 Suffolk x Mule ewe lambs were keenly sought after for both tuppings and runners with the stronger end all £200 plus whilst runners were usually £175 to £195 and the breed averaged £193.33. Following up their success at the July Fair, father and son Robert & Angus Mackintosh trading as Milborne Wick Farms, Sherborne topped the sale with a tremendous run of strong tuppings that achieved £250, £242, £240 & £215 with an overall average of £236 for 101 sold, well done to them. Next up were the first Suffolk's through the ring, coming from Stuart Rogers of Landkey, Barnstaple, his four smart pens sold ahead of expectations at £245, £242, £212 & £192 whilst nearer the end of the sale first time vendors at this fixture Mikey & Amber Swerling of Mariansleigh sold their eye catching run of shorn lambs well at £228, £210, £202 & £200. Other notable runs included Martin Barons of Totnes with more shorn lambs that caught the eye and sold at £212, £200 twice and averaged £196 of 160 sold, Gareth & Jess Hutchings of Launceston reached £195, Lloyd Heard and Family of Okehampton claimed £192 & £190 and both both Hannah Reddaway of Totnes and the Medland Family of Tavistock claimed £188 of their best. Texel x Mules to £200, £198 & £190 for Brian Cawsey of Torrington as the Nancekivells of Lovistone Barton, Okehampton rose to £180 & £178 twice. Cheviot Mules proved popular as always with Ben & Jess Collings claiming £225 of their pen of tuppings with runners then £200, £185 & £180, two pens of Scotch Mule tuppings lambs sold at £190 a piece for the Heard Family of Hughslade, Okehampton and a nice run of shorn Dorset Mules from Mark Kimber and Family of Merton sold at £200 & £290.

A few smaller April born runners trading £115 to £140 but the bulk of the business £170 to £210 to average £191 for all 1585 ewe lambs sold is £42 better on the year.

1016 SHEARLING EWES

Amongst the shearlings Texels took top price with Jon & Helen Putt of Tedburn St Mary making £308, £302 & £292 whilst Charollais x Mules from Martin Banks and Family of Farway rose to £300 & £295. NC Mules were headed by the strong run from Maurice Hockridge and Family of Crediton that peaked at £284 and sold their remaining four pens at £280. Abi Pritchard of Dartmouth led the Suffolk cross trade with a strong pen at £288 whilst Adrian Cole and Family of Bradninch also claimed £288, this time with Dorset Shearlings. A lot of business between £230 and £265 on the handy farming shearlings whilst the next notch down were either side of £200 and some lesser sorts back from that but all finding new homes.

465 OLDER EWES

Mainly bits and pieces in the older ewe section with all sheep keenly bid for and more could have been sold. Suffolk cross aged ewes peaked at £240 and Texel x's at £228 for Adrian Cole and Family as Norman Dalgarno travelled up from Truro to disperse his crossbred flock ewes to highs of £230 & £220 twice. Martin Banks with genuine 4T aged Mules at £242, Matthew Lethbridge with Suffolks of a similar age at £215 and Sophie Bould-Lynch of Blackawton with leaner 4T Mules at £200. Mike Chugg and Family of Barnstaple with a pen of Exmoor Mules at £210 and plenty of others selling around the £200 mark and well in front of their cull value.

83 MV FEMALES

Two great consignments of MV females preceded the rams with Michael Lear of Loxbeare dispersing his Sidborough adult flock of Texel's to a packed crowd of potential and prospective buyers as well as strong contingent on Marteye, who created a flying trade throughout. Prices peaked at 1700gns for lot 25, a shearling sired by Preenbank Gale Force and a dam sired by Knap Earl who herself had achieved 950gns earlier in the sale, this shearling gimmer goes home with Robert & Rebecca Jordan of Chagford for their Moortown flock. Several other shearlings and one crop ewes selling between 1000 and 1100gns with older ewes peaking at 1200gns for lot 8, a Rusha Bon Jovi sired two crop ewe whilst the entire consignment of 40 females averaged an impressive £890 throughout. We thank Michael for his kind instructions to disperse his flock and wish him every happiness in his retirement.

The second annual sale of Wilsey shearling ewes on behalf of Les and Heather French of Launceston met once again with a good crowd of buyers and a nice rise in trade on last years sale. Top money went to a pair of scanned in-lamb shearlings at 800gns apiece followed by another pair at 700gns as well as two individual shearlings at 700gns. The majority then selling between 520 and 650gns with only a handful between 450 and 500gns leaving the French's with an overall average of £650, up £191 on the year.

137 MV FEMALES

A shorter entry of rams only heightened demand with 133 sold out of 137 and an overall average of £963 throughout speaks for itself in terms of trade.

Ian Johnson of Bridport topping the day with his pen of three smart homebred Texel shearlings selling at 1850gns and 1800gns with the other at 1000gns. The Quick family of Loosebeare selling Texel, CharTex and Charollais shearlings to 1650, 1500, 1450, 1420 & 1400gns whilst Louise Elworthy of Crockernwell sold a smart Beltex at 1450 and Reg & Annie Pedrick of Ashburton sold crossbred well at 1420gns. Top 40 prices all over 1000gns, second rate rams, aged rams and ram lambs often 550 to 800gns and even a few third quality types back 150 to 300 included in that average of nearly £1000.

Rams available every Friday and our next catalogued sale is 20th October.
