Steers to £2420 – Store Heifers to £2330

Incorporating Our Second Autumn Judged Sale of Continental Bred Cattle

Not so many store cattle on offer here at Exeter this week with demand again on the rise right across the board with those younger hard kept sorts which are usually less desirable at this time of the year looking just as well sold as anything on offer. A host of buyers in attendance once again saw several good runs of cattle entered into our second Autumn show and sale of continental bred stores with first prize winners in the steer section coming from Dave Pollard and Family in from Black Dog selling a pair of tremendous Simmentals (18m) to £2420 and other bunches of a similar age to £2310 and £2190. Also, a pen of eight neat later born Simmental steers (15m) from RJ Hill and Sons of Tavistock looked as well sold as anything sold on the day when racing to £1890 apiece. Next up was Jesse White of Sandford with his second prize winning Limousin steer (19m) easing to £2230 followed by top British Blue bullocks (21m) reaching £2220 for Andrew Peters and Family of Talaton. Further good Blues worthy of a mention included ones (21m) making £2180 and £2170 for Michael Trick of Pennymoor and £2100 for one sold for Roger Calcraft in from Aylesbeare. Jesse White was soon back and parting with a Beef Shorthorn steers (17m) for a creditable £2130 whilst Campbell and Jackie Hill up from Torpoint saw their older (26m) pair of Shorthorns rise to £2060 a life. Sticking with the native breed steers we saw Aberdeen Angus (18m) draw £2130 for Campbell and Jackie Hill again followed by Devons realising £2070 for MJ Comont and Son from Copplestone and Herefords (22m) coming back at £2010 for Roger Adams of Newquay. Also, rangy Friesian bullocks (20m) ran to £1900 for Dave Parris and Family of Upottery. Top priced (and best heifers in the show) saw a couple of eye catching Simmentals (18m) come back at a very decent £2330 apiece for Dave Pollard and Family whilst second placed heifers also went to good Simmentals, this time for an older (28m) one from Andrew and George Palk of Marlton which went on to reach £2040. Limousin heifers (22m) sold well and to £2250 for Roger Calcraft who also parted with a smart British Blue female (24m) for £2180 with further Blues to £2160 for both Michael Trick and Andrew Peters and Family. Best of the rest saw a trio of well bred Charolais (25m) from Paul Pincombe of Lapford ease to £2060 and other Charolais of a similar age fetch £2030 for Alan Hembrow up from Lostwithiel these were followed by a cracking Aberdeen Angus bred heifer (28m) from Ross Fuller of Chulmleigh which hit £1980.

Store Lambs £172

Grazers Ewes to £166

Breeding Ewes to £195

Breeding Rams to £700 Couples to £310

A big day in sheep city after seven weeks of breed society sale tying in with our Friday sales it's a good job we didn't have one today as we needed the room!

3414 STORE LAMBS

A massive 3414 stores and after last weeks bonanza trade was just about there again despite possibly half the number of buyers. That said there was more than enough buying power for all classes right up to the last pens sold and the result, an average of £123.51, just £1.50 less. Some smart Suffolk cross ewe lambs headed the sale with David Jarvis and Family of Kingsbridge selling two pens at £172, two pens at £162 and another two at £155 as well as wether lambs at £154 and £151 twice. Other Suffolk x ewe lambs at £160 twice for Lloyd Heard and Family of Okehampton who had another pen at £149 and other genuine stores at £153.50 & £147.50 for Rob & Angie Davies of Totnes and £149.50 for the Clements Family of East Worlington.

211 GRAZING EWES

Just over 200 grazers and no real superstars this week with R Hole of Taunton topping the section at £166, Francis Brewer of Silvertown at £153 and Nigel Haley of Buckfastleigh with Hampshire Downs at £150. Trade here perhaps a shade less than last week's flyer but still no disappointments.

142 BREEDING EWES & 13 RAMS

A varied show of breeders after Tuesdays sale saw tups top at £700 twice for crossbred shearlings from Rich Berry of Kenn who sold older rams at £480, £390 and £360 as well as smaller shapier Charollais shearlings at £300 with Dave Phillips of Chard selling older rams at £380 and £300. A mixed bag of breeders met with decent interest and topped at £195 for 6T-FM Dorset ewes from Antony Coker of Rattery who also had Texel x ewes of the same age at £192 & £170. Matthew Lethbridge of Stokenham followed up Tuesdays success with full and broke Suffolk crosses at £182 and Mules at £160 whilst Bob & Liz Priest of Thornbury sold Aberfield cross ewes with the same comments at £160 and Rich Bond of Blackawton had mules the same age at £150 twice.

4 EWES & 6 LAMBS (10 LIVES)

We're not sure if they're early or late but Dave Phillips had Romney type FM doubles at £310 and D Turner of West Bay sold Herdwick singles at £130.
