Auctioneer's Comments

Another great catalogue of breeding sheep forward on the year being nearly 600 more shearlings entered than we've seen here for the previous three years. It's no surprise there's fewer older ewes forward given the unprecedented high prices seen for culls over this spring and early summer. Just the one consignment of ewe lambs and fewer Rams than last year bringing us back to just over 200 head in the ram ring where the quality looks to be abundant!

The July Fair catalogue always includes some of the best consignments of sheep in Southern England and this year again is no exception with every sheep worthy of its place at this prestigious and nationally recognised sale that this year once again has sponsorship from the Farmers Guardian, Marts the Heart. With slightly more Suffolk x shearlings and a very small number of older ewes we're returning to the format of selling all older ewes first through the ring followed by Suffolk x shearlings all through the store cattle ring and all with the benefit of online bidding and live streaming via Marteye. All other shearlings are penned in the sheep pennage and sold in their pens.

As usual this is a fantastic sale, one not to be missed by anyone serious about sheep!
