HILL FAIR & SECOND SALE OF EWE LAMBS

Auctioneer: Russell Steer 07788 318701

2696 PRIME SPRING LAMBS

A great catalogue of sheep for this, our final breeding sale of the season with something for everyone and a massive crowd of buyers ensuring there was someone for everything! Lowland ewes and shearlings kicked things off and the first to be sold were a selection of various in-lambers with Paul Rowden of Blackawton selling two pens of flock aged Dorset ewes scanned to Dorset for November lambing and sold at a joint top price of £252 with a further two pens at £205, Stan Harris of Blandford sold Dorset's that have been running with the ram to a top of £230 for shearlings whilst his older ewes sold at £220 & £190. Two other consignments of Mule shearlings shared the top price of £252 when firstly Maurice Hockridge of Crediton parted with an eye catching pen of seven for that money and then a tremendous run of lambed Mule shearlings from the Banks Family of Colyton started off at £240 and just went dearer and dearer reaching a top of £252 for two pens leaving their 120 sold to average £240. Other Mule shearlings at £202 for the Langdon Family of Molland, £200 for Tony England of Tiverton and £198 & £192 for Richard Yabsley of Dartmouth with a solitary pen of Mashams at £190 for Jon & Helen Putt. Jon and Helen also had lambed Texel x Mule shearlings at £230 as well as Suffolk x Mules with the same comments at £215 & £212 and Ollie Eavis of Exeter sold a smart pair of Suffolk x Shearlings to £215. The consignment of breeding sheep off the island of Guernsey saw Marcel Worley sell flock aged Charollais ewes at £200, £175 & £170 whilst his flock aged Shropshires realised £170 & £162, smart pen of Lley Shearlings attained £195, Romney Shearlings £165 and the best two pens of his older crossbred ewes made £158. Marcel's neighbour Robert Paul also dispersed his flock with highs of £152 & £142 for mainly Lley type ewes. The run of Romney flock aged ewes from Anthony Home Farm of Torpoint saw the best for the trade for the FM ewes with these reaching £181 twice whilst the annual consignment from the Westcott Family of Porlock was a similar story with their best FM Romney's at £176 twice and across in the hill section Rich Northey of Liskeard sold Romney x Cheviot FM ewes to tops of £178, £170, £168 twice and £162 four times.

A larger line up of hill sheep again this year for our hill fair and all classes meeting good enquiry with buyers, breeders and enthusiasts from all across the Westcountry descending on Exeter for the varied goods on offer. A believed new record was set when Rich and Lisa Gray of Holne dispersed the last of their Swale flock with 17 strong, well marked and matching shearlings selling at £212 apiece. More Swale shearlings at £150 twice for Adam Garthwaite of Yarnscombe who also had 2 crop Swale ewes at £102 and 3 croppers at £98 twice. Clyde Coaker of Widecombe sold his usual strong FM's at £115 twice and Ray Tucker of Bridford had similar at £104 and Tony England claimed £95 for the best of his flock aged Swales as well as Scotch Blackface 6T-FM ewes at £85. Steve Ley and Hannah Payne of Dawlish sold their pen of flock aged Badger Faced Brecknock Cheviots well at £140 as the Medland Family of Tavistock parted with full and broken mouthed Cheviot ewes well to £132 twice, £130 and £125 twice and Rich Northey's Nelson Welsh FM ewes peaked at £112 twice, £100 twice and £92 twice.

Trade still strong in the ewe lamb section especially for the tuppens and smarter end of the runners with some less descript sorts back at store money. Stuart Middleton of Cullompton claimed top price here with a pen of massive shorn Suffolk x Mule ewe lambs at £220 closely followed by David and Lynda Pellow of Sourton with their wooled Suffolk crosses selling at £215 twice, £190 and £162. Mike Stanbury of Throwleigh with Suffolk crosses at £158 and a fine run of shorn runners from Martin Barons of Diptford sold to £152 and £150 twice. Texel Mules in demand too with two pens from Milborne Wick Farms of Sherborne selling at £195 and further pens at £170 from the same home and £175 twice from JB Cawsey of Torrington. Dorset ewe lambs saw Paul Rowden top the breed with strength at £215, younger fresher sorts from Chris Hall of Blandford at £192 twice and the best of Alan Bickley of Puddington's sold at £172. Only a few pens of Cheviot Mules still met crazy demand with an eye catching pen of strong runners from Ray Jordan of Broadwoodwidger soaring to £205, the Reddaway Family of Sampford Courtenay claimed £160 of theirs and Steve Ley & Hannah Payne made £132 of theirs. A pen of traditional Blue faced Leicester ewe lambs sold at £175 for Brian Dallyn of Parracombe whilst the black lamb in the pen sold at £190 making its purchasers birthday! Mules were headed by the annual consignment of Welsh Mules from the Reddaway Family with their best two pens making £175 as Neil Cole and Family of Yelverton reached £150 & £145 of their best and Angus Francis of Okehampton reached £144 with his best.

Another large entry of rams with just over 200 forward and just under 200 sold and an overall average of £531 at this late sale which includes many hill bred rams is a fantastic result. Andy & Wendy Reed of Blackborough topped the sale with a Suffolk shearling at 1050gns and others at 800, 700 & 650gns twice. Other Suffolk shearlings to 820gns twice and 750gns for Guy Goldring of Ashburton and several other tail end Suffolk rams forward trading 400 to 550gns. Charollais shearling rams to 900 & 780gns for Jon & Helen Putt as some tremendous pens of CharTex rams sold to 800gns twice for Paul Quick and Family of Zeak Monachorum, 750gns for Jack Enticott and Family of Wellington and 720gns and 700gns twice for Ian & Richard Rottenbury of Chipstable. A good choice and plenty of trade for the Blue faced Leicester rams on offer too with Helen Havill of Trusham selling traditional lambs at 900gns twice as well as black lamb at 680gns. Other traditionals at 650gns for Norman Dalgarno of Truro whilst Brian Dallyn sold his crossing type shearlings away well at 720, 700gns twice and 650gns. Best of the Texels selling to 850gns for Jim and Nicky Hartwright of Worcester as Paul Quick and Family reached 750gns with their best and Ian and Richard Rottenbury peaked at 780gns for their best shearling.
