Auctioneer: Simon Alford – 07789 980203

Cull Cows to £2275

Another decent line up for our latest monthly sale of TB restricted cattle met the now customary mirrored trade in comparison to regulars open sale with the usual compliment of Approved finishing Unit and Abattoir buyers ensuring all on offer sold either to their value, or more. Tuesday evenings sale kicked off with a handful of cull cows with those topping at £2275 (870kg x 262ppk) and £2034 (778kg x 262ppk) for a pair of well covered Aberdeen Angus from Miss M Pearson of Coryton. The store cattle section saw steers reach £2500 firstly given for a couple of towering black Limousins (23m) from JC Warne & Sons up from Truro followed by a grand pair of South Devon steers (28m) from Anthony Luscombe of Totnes which also drew £2500. The latter also parted with his next best pen of South Devon bullocks (27m) for £2430 whilst two more of the same breed matched up with a Charolais (30m) from Phillip Haydon in from Hittisleigh came back at £2380 apiece. Phillip Haydon also saw further strong bunches of South Devon bullocks (28m) return £2280 and £2270 together with Charolais of a similar age to £2120 whilst JC Warne & Sons sold eye catching pens of red Hereford and British Blue steers (24m) to £2370 and £2250 respectively. Younger store steers (18m) still selling readily and to £1840 for a pair of smart Limousins from Chris Viggers of Milton Abbot. An outstanding bunch of five Charolais heifers (28m) from Phillip Haydon headed that section and realised £2050 a life followed by later born Charolais females (20m) from Chris Viggers at £1850. Phillip Haydon was soon back and selling trim South Devon heifers (28m) for £1830 as was JC Warne & Sons with a couple of super British Blues (24m) which picked up £1770
