Store Steers to £2550 – Store Heifers to £2400

Good numbers coming forward especially considering we are only in January with many sellers taking advantage of the stronger trade we have seen since the turn of the year. We did perhaps think those stronger, forward sorts may be back a touch in price on Friday to mirror the finished quotes, but those big cattle were actually dearer on the week here at Exeter as were the many runs of younger steers and heifers on offer. The numerous consignments of high calibre stores on show were headed by an outstanding pen of six black Limousin steers (21m) from John and Emily Northam of Wellington which drew a considerable £2550 apiece with other Limousin bullocks off the same farm and of a similar age also easing to big money when reaching £2510 and £2490. Further sublime Limousin steers saw red ones (21m) from Brian Vallance and Family up from Bickington sell at £2540 whilst Roger Oliver of Lower Ashton saw his best Limousin (23m) draw £2440 and young Limousins (13m) from Natthwey Wilson of Dunsford saw £1880 for a pair. An eye catching South Devon steer (21m) from Simon booty of Poundsgate sold well when making £2500 as did a super pen of five South Devons (22m) sold on behalf of Steve Cockren of Plympton which came back at £2300 a life followed by the best of the Charolais steers (27m) at £2500 for a well bred and kept pair from Alan Hembrow and Family of Lostwithiel with their next best still reaching £2460 and £2410. Also, other tidy Charolais fetched £2400 for both David Harris of Stoke Fleming and Willian Saunders in from Belstone. Later born Charolais steers (18m) also looked well sold at £2100 for David Skelley of Shaugh Prior. Alan Hembrow and Family were soon back when selling a pair of very smart rangy Aberdeen Angus bullocks (25m) for £2390 apiece as was David Harris with a fantastic bunch of six Hereford bred bullocks (20m) that ran to a creditable £2390 each. Also, the best of the British Blue steers saw a lovely pen of seven (20m) rise to £2340 a time for John Ridd and Family from Alverdiscott, Barnstaple and more quality young stores from David Skelley saw his smart trio of British Blonde steers (20m) draw £1950 a life. Several well bred and fed heifers about again this week with that section headed by Alan Hembrow and Family who sold their trim Charolais (27m) to a very decent £2400 whilst John and Emily Northam saw their pen of five standout Charolais (21m) reach £2280 apiece and John Ridd and Family saw theirs (26m) pick up £2100. Also, much later Charolais females (13m) of high order from Matthew Wilson sold readily and to £1800. Glorious Limousin bred heifers looking well sold at £2300 and £2280 (20m) for John and Emily Northam with older sorts (30m) selling to £2290 for Ross Skelley of Shaugh Prior and young Limousins (just 14m) making £1660 for Matthew Wilson. The three generations of the Cleave Family of Moretonhampstead, Sue, Geoff and Sean sold well farmed British blonde heifers (23m) for £2250 whilst John Ridd and family saw their Blonde females (22m) rise to £1910 whilst returning sellers John and Emily Northam and Alan Hembrow and Family saw Simmental and Aberdeen Angus females to £2200 and £2140 respectively. Best of the rest saw a couple of well-kept South Devon heifers (22m) sell for £1990 for Sue Geoff and Sean Cleave followed by British Blues (23m) at £1960 for Joe Mawle in from Sticklepath and Norwegian Reds (26m) make £1920 for Ray Middleton and Sons of Woodbury.

BEEF BREEDING

A grand five year old pedigree Simmental breeding bull from Tony Francis of Okehampton made £2140 followed by an outstanding British Blonde cow with her smart four month old bull calf at foot sold for a worthy £3420 for Derek Arnold in from Morchard Road whilst Beef Shorthorn bulling heifers (28m) ran to £1540 for L Wessely of Chagford.

Orphan Lambs to £50      Store Hogs to £156      Grazing Ewes to £171
Double Couples to £390      Singles Couples to £275

53 ORPHAN LAMBS

More orphans forward than we were expecting with a harder working trade seeing Tom & Helen Garland of Woodbury Salterton sell a pen of 6 weaned sorts at £50, followed by no less than 24 lambs from three different vendors selling at £25 and smaller and frailer things back in single figures to average £23.37 overall.

1902 STORE HOGGS

Fewer hoggs than we were expecting with 1902 forward and sold and in truth some hoggs looking dearer than last week with nothing really taking any harm despite the weather and sticky prime trade. The Calcraft family of Aylesbeare in pole position at £156 followed by David & Lynda Pellow of Sourton with their two pens at £150 & £149, Andrew Bond of South Milton at £148 & £143.50 twice. Victor Pitts of Exminster with a good run at £146.50, £145 & £143.50 as Terry Phillips of Tedburn St Mary reached £145, the Shervington family of Hittisleigh at £144.50 and both the Clements family of Worlington and Micky Tylor of Helston made £144. Numerous pens of strength but not fit to kill hoggs trading either side of £140 with well bred medium keep hoggs well sought after too selling to £137 & £134.50 for Messrs Halwell Farms of South Pool. Longer term hoggs maybe a touch less on the week with a few more trading in the £90's than we've seen recently and the edge just off the riff raff too with these back at more sensible levels than the unsustainable highs of the past few weeks. Overall average of £119.15 is £4 dearer on the week, helped by a better show but in truth most hoggs just as dear and looking well sold, especially against the fats.

231 GRAZING EWES & RAMS

A bigger show of grazers and a high percentage of hill ewes forward and these looking well sold usually between £65 and £95 with many going to graze whilst the better meated sorts sold over £100 to £112 & £101 for Steve Francis of North Tawton with Scotch ewes. Better bred ewes reaching £171 for Chris Southcott of Uffculme, £153 for Terry Phillips and £153 & £150 for Ian Treneman of Hatherleigh.

57 EWES & 81 LAMBS (138 LIVES)

57 couples and although there's not a massive crowd of buyers trade remains strong. Chris and Sue Popham down from Trull atop the tree again this week with their powerful Dorset Mule FM's suckling young CharTex twins that rose to £390 (£130/life) as well as selling top price singles with a BM at £275 and FM at £272. Victor Pitts sold his best doubles at £365, £335 & £300 as well as a large pen of singles at £270. Tracey Cobbledick of Bude had Charollais doubles with only young lambs at £355 and Scott Burrough and family of Axminster sold Lleyn type doubles at £318 & £305. Other singles to £270 twice for GMA Chugg of Farway and lots of singles £115 to £125. Overall averages of £280 per outfit and £115.53 per life seeing notable lifts of £19 and £13 respectively.
