6. Sale of Property

Buyers should note that a legally enforceable Contract of Sale of the relevant property arises as soon as it has been “knocked down” to the Buyer at the Auction. On a property being sold, the successful bidder will be given a Buyer’s slip by Kivells. The bidder must complete the Buyer’s slip with the required information and pay the required deposit. In default of such information being provided at once Kivells will be entitled to re-submit the property for sale and may treat the Buyer as being in breach of Contract. Such action will be taken without prejudice to any claim there may be against the Buyer for breach of Contract. Before the end of the Auction, the successful bidder should arrange for the Memorandum of Sale to be signed by or on behalf of the Buyer. Unless the Seller agrees otherwise the property will only be transferred to the Buyer named in the Buyer’s Slip and Memorandum of Sale completed by the successful bidder. Specific Buyers must be named. Properties cannot be transferred to an un-named ‘nominee’ or ‘agent’. In relation to insurance, the Buyer should refer to the Special Conditions of Sale and Common Auction Conditions.

Payment is accepted by personal cheque, banker’s draft, or solicitor’s client account cheque. Deposit payments by cash or debit/credit cards are NOT accepted. The deposit should be paid when the Buyer’s slip is completed. A separate payment will be requested in respect of each lot purchased.
