371 Furniture & Goods – Auctioneer Andrew Varney

A tidy entry of goods saw the top call of the day hitting £100 for a wooden trunk in from Nigel Davis of Bradworthy with other lots from the same good home at £34. Messrs Bell sold their exercise bike reach £25 with other lots from the same good home at £24. The Trinder family of Sheepwash sold a nice consignment which topped at £38 for a Butchers block whilst another lot being a quantity of baskets at £24. Messrs Copps Removals sold their used consignment of 50 lots which topped at £24 for an inflatable boat with costume jewellery at £16. Mr Johnson sold his line up of 35 lots hitting £34 for a small collection of brass with sack trucks at £16.

Speaking after the sale Auctioneer Andrew Varney said,

“Although the entry was a little shorter today trade was fine with plenty of buyers ready to spend on quality lots”.

391 Saddlery & Tack – Auctioneer James Morrish

A nice entry of saddlery saw a better trade with more buyers present.

Top call of the day was £160 for the Reynolds 17” saddle sold on behalf of Annabelle Wheatley of Banbury in Oxfordshire going off to its new home in North Cornwall. Chris West made the 340 round trip down from Ashford in Kent to sell over 100 lots to a top call of £52 for horse clippers with plenty between £30-£45. Helen Wooley of Exeter saw her consignment top at £50 for her Crosby saddle whilst Laura James came up from Newton Abbot and saw her best hitting £40 with her best bridles hitting £27. Messrs Hall of Torpoint saw her 10 lots top at £25 for her travel fleeces and a Gatehouse riding hat at £18 going off to Crediton.

Speaking after the audience James Morrish of Kivells said

“It was very pleasing to see more bidders and new vendors present pushing the best to £160”.
